

Keystone Ecozones La Tercera Elementary School

LRP Partnership Angelia Rossi

Zone 1: Pollinator Patch

Pollinator loving, colorful, perennials, grasses, & shrubs

Bush Anemone
California Aster
Canyon Prince Wild Rye
California Buckwheat
Sedges
Coyote Mint
Anise Hyssop
Cleveland Sage
Sticky Monkeyflower

Silver Lupine

Zone 2: Food Forest

Medicinal & edible plants that reflect cultural & traditional signficance

Yarrow
Golden Currant
Elderberry
Echinacea
Pineapple Guava
Manzanita
Coyote Mint
Yerba Buena

Huckleberry

White Sage

Zone 1: Pollinator Patch Zone 7: Sensory Spiral Cardinal Crossroad: The Oak Zone 3: The Oak Zone 4: Beaver Basin Zone 5: The Nest

Zone 3: The Oak

Oak woodland habitat that provides shade & moments for rest

Coast Live Oak
Ceanothus
Purple Needle Grass
Sedge
Coyote Brush
Manzanita
Sticky Monkeyflower

Zone 4: Beaver Basin

A duel space of both dry & wet plant communities that promotes natural play & discovery

Sagebrush Shrub Manzanita Sedges

Purple Needle Grass

Milkweed Gray Rush Basket Rush

Zone 5: The Nest

Cozy, shady space with inner gathering space that imitates a birds nest, surrounded by larger shrubs & grasses

Zone 7: Elk Edge

that elk like to eat!

Bunchgrasses

Fescue

Sedges

Transitional edge of plants

Canyon Prince Wild Rye California Fescue Sedge Toyon Western Serviceberry Coyote Brush

Sagebrush

Zone 7: Sensory Spiral

A spiral pathway following seasonal plantings that engage all of the senses and lead to a central gathering space.

Coyote Mint
Anise Hyssop
Golden Currant
Yarrow
Cleveland Sage
California Fuschia
Purple Needle Grass
California Fescue
Shrub/ groundcover Manzanita
Matilija Poppy

Zone 6: Fungi Forest

A collection of spaces that allows for learning & interaction with soil, fungi, & shady riparian plants

Sedges Heuchera California Poppy (Contribute to soil health) Purple Needle Grass (Contribute to soil health) California Aster

Pink Flowering Currant

Western Sword Fern